Mr. John W. Garrett,

Dear Mr. Garrett:-

I have been expecting to hear from you, as to whether, you are ~~desirous~~ ^{desirous} of giving me commissions on the Bement sale and also, whether, as I asked you in my last letter, "Do you desire me to lend you my catalogue for three days?"-if I was unable to obtain another.

I asked the executors here, for a copy, but found they had not been sent any, to their astonishment, when I made the inquiry. For though, they had sold the collection to Spink it would have, at least, been courteous to send them a copy of the catalogue.

I have weighed the matter of attending the sale and come to the conclusion that, unless, I have a very heavy commission from you it would not be advantageous to give up all my work here, and go to Europe and back again in mid-winter with all the discomfort of Continental trains, etc.

I have gone to Europe three times before in January, one of which was to Messina where I was the first American to arrive upon the scenes of the earthquake. I was then Vice-president of the Geographical Society and also went as special inspector for the Red Cross, (though all at my own expense). I am never seasick, so that does not worry me.

I therefore telegraphed you as follows, "Unable obtain another catalogue, sending mine, returned here Friday. Concluded not attend unless large commissions. If you bid will visit for conference.

Telephone. Necessary decide tomorrow, sail Saturday."

I mailed the catalogue by Parcel Post, special delivery herewith and ask you to return it Thursday afternoon, so that it will be here Friday at the latest, so I could consider any other bids.

2 Send a few bids for some of the coins that I sold Mr. Bement.

I have not gone all over it yet, I only marked in a few of the many pieces, which came from us. The pieces in the sale of the greatest merit are artistically and historically have, in many cases cost Mr. Bement large prices from $1,000 to $3,000 each.

One of the greatest rarities, No. 519 I sold him in 1915, this is only the third specimen known and better than the B. M.

If you desire to make any bids by mail and will trust them to me, I will be pleased to forward them and make no charges, beyond, the 5 percent I would have to pay my agent.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I have just received a copy of the Bement catalogue and have sent some bids in through Spink of London. I found that I would not want to get anything like enough pieces to make it worth while to avail myself of your kind suggestion. Thank you very much for sending me your copy of the catalogue which I am returning.

I am also sending back the Greek coins that you sent me the other day except a few which I have kept and for which I enclose my check.

Thanks very much for your kind wishes, and I send you best New Year greetings.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Garrett:-

Your letter of January 3th. received, enclosing check for $259. for coins selected, for which I thank you. Also received balance of the invoice returned.

I appreciate the attention you have given my proposition about the bidding.

I would remark, which is perhaps a reiteration, that my prices are on the European bases and the coins you have selected, are at what they have sold for in the same preservation in European sales.

Schlumberger is epuise, but he will try to find a copy.
Angel and Serurre. Moyenage, first volume is epuise; will also try to find. Prices quoted actual French prices.

I ordered him yesterday to subscribe to the de Morgan.
You do not say whether you wished them bound or unbound. I always prefer and would advise to obtain them broche and have them bound here, because the French manner of forwarding up solid is very bad, as it does not allow the book to open flat, and you have to force it open and put a weight on it if you take your hand off it. It enables the binder to make a very solid and smooth back and to make a good appearance in a book-case, but I do not approve of the method, and the books should be forwarded loose after full sewing. I even carry this out in all my auction catalogues.

Yours faithfully,

John W. Garrett, Esq.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

I have received a letter from my son in Paris regarding the books you ordered. We find that the largest dealer has very few of the books you wanted. He has purchased "Peoy d'Avant", three volumes with plates broché for 150 francs, and is holding it to make up a case with other heavy works that he may secure. He also bought Blanchet, Monnaies Gauloises, 2 volumes, 30 francs, plus 4.10, the postage registered, which he forwarded and I have received yesterday and I am forwarding to you by parcel-post this afternoon. Exchange in Paris that day, ticker 19.35 at noon. Banker charge 25 centimes each way commission per dollar, making this figure 19.35 per dollar.

J. de Morgan is appearing in parts; only the first fascicule is out, the second is promised in the next week or two. None sold without total subscription in advance, 150 francs. They are to get out two more fascicules this year.

Mr John W. Garrett.

Dear Mr Garrett:

Another letter this morning regarding the books. We find that several of them are really rare and off the market, excepting only one copy of Schlumberger, for instance, and one dealer, who has a copy, asks, net to me as a dealer, 10% above the old gold price.

Engel & Serrure, published by Leroux, is out of print, but my son has a quotation from a dealer for a second-hand copy, two volumes at 360 francs, about $26 with my commission for the two volumes.

My son states that Eckhel will cost fully the old price, gold, or slightly more. The old price, catalogued in 1893, was 120 francs for the nine volumes bound. I had a copy a few years ago, but sold it.

I am quite surprised that it is necessary to pick up a work at a time from various dealers.

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett,

Your note of April 8, received, and note your instructions about the books. I have been waiting before answering your request on an estimate on the gold Nygren until I could get a catalogue or see them. Luckily I met my brother the other day. When he said, "I have just had the proprietary plates made. If you would like to see the coins, you may call and see them", I thought I would just avail myself of the opportunity and examine the pieces, and not mention that I have any patron for them.

Adams No. 11, has been ruined by having the obverse of margin completely planed level, or, more than that, sloping down to the edge. No. 12 is a very ordinary specimen; really, now from memory I could not be sure which was the planed one. I did not want to make a memorandum, I did not want to create too much attention, One is of no value; the other is a fine specimen worth about $150. or $200.

U. S. Assay, $50.00, Adams, No. 20. $150.00

Templeton Reid, $5.00. $2000. Very fine.

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

Mr. John W. Garrett is very anxious to see a copy of the catalogue of the Nygren Sale and has asked me to write and ask if you received his letter of several days ago in which he asked you to send him a copy. He would like to get a copy of this catalogue as soon as possible, and also wants to know the date of the sale.

Very truly yours,

S.

John W. Garrett, Esq.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

Now with the catalogue before me I can make more clear appraisals of pieces for which you inquire and make an estimate. But it is difficult to do so on the Templeton-Reid five dollar and the Baldwin 1851 20 and 10 ^{regular} type of coinage, because there have been no sales of these since 1909 of which I am aware. There is such an increased demand for them, an appreciation of their great rarity, that the previous quotations are too low and to-day the coins may bring three or four times the old quotation, and the prices will depend on how far the buyer will go at the time. I would advise that you send me the limit to which you are willing to go and I will buy them for you as cheaply as possible. An appraisal can only be placed at a price that is somewhat relative to the price those of equal rarity have sold for, and about what I feel would be their relative value. The pattern pieces are of course of undetermined prices with one or two exceptions. Again I can only appraise them relatively.

Yours sincerely,

S. H. Chapman

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I bought for you at the sale of A.C. Nigren two lots. No. 19 for $2350. and no. 61 for $2525. There was a large attendance at the sale, and the great number of proprietary coins attracted attention. The bidding all over the room, was active on these pieces. On No. 19 there were four bidders competing to $2000. and then three of us at $2100. and the last $200., I had one competitor. I used the utmost finesse in my bidding when the Reid went over $2000. I thought when I sent you the estimate of $2000. that I was too low. I sold a $10. piece of the same rarity, which I bought from a finder in Georgia in 1910 and paid him $1500 cash for, to Mr. Grandberg for $2000. It was just in fine condition. Up to that time there had been no record of sale. Another specimen turned up in the same year and was sold to Mr. Brand. It was with this quotation in mind that I had some basis for my estimate, and on several others on which I sent you the estimate, the prices were not "fantastic" as they were amazingly well confirmed at the sale. As I had warned you in my telegram that the Reid might go to $3000. and as I had no reply from you, I thought I was justified in going over $2000., the bid in the room. No. 61 again had the most active bidding from five bidders at the start. I bid to $2400. and then stopped bidding for three bids and when $2500. was bid, I thought quickly and thought, "I have $2400. left, and if I do not bid we will have lost the opportunity and it is one of the great rarities"--and bid $25.35. Then the others stopped and the piece was knocked down to me. I think both of these instances of estimate and others, especially on two of the three patterns, shows. I claim, ability for sensing values. Of the six pieces, the only one I was far away was the estimate on No. 12 which sold for $500. to a dealer but I had no quotation on which to base an estimate, and in placing it at $2000. I thought it was still fair and was surprised that there was no greater competition. I had no way of knowing how far he would have gone for it. It was apparently rarer than the 20 for no specimen was known to Adams when he published his book in 1909. It means also that none had ever been sold at auction. Had I had any more money left, I would have bid on this piece. I certainly bought them for you as cheaply as possible.

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I am very much pleased at the way you handled my bids at the Nygren sale and I am glad to have the two pieces you secured for me, even though they went for such high prices. I am enclosing you my check for them as well as for the two books which I have received.

If the Baldwin ten dollats was secured by a dealer it might be possible for you to get it for me at a slight advance, which I feel I could afford to pay in view of the fact that it sold so much below estimates.

I did not expect you to think that in using th the word "fantastic" I meant that your estimates were such.

As a matter of fact they have proved remarkably accurate. What I meant was that the prices at which these Pioneer coins are now selling is fantastic, and I certainly think they are.

I have added $1.50 to my check and shall be much obliged if you will send me a priced catalog of the sale. I shall write you as soon as I can in answer to the other letters I have from you in reference to certain books.

Very truly yours,

May 7th, 1924.

Dear Mr. Chapman:

In my letter to you the other day, I said I would let you know presently whether or not I should want any of the books about which you wrote me sometime ago. I have now had a chance to go carefully over the list and there is only one that I might want; that is the Van Loon. If that is the book that is so often referred to and by which Dutch coins are usually numbered and if the set is in unspoiled condition, I shall be glad to have you send it to me.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I duly received your letter of the second, enclosing check for $5132.29 in payment for purchases at the Nigren sale $5118.75 and $13.54 for books imported, for which I thank you. I will send you the price catalog to-morrow. I am very glad to know that you are pleased at the way I handled your bids at the Nigren sale. I know I certainly did my utmost for your interest. The Baldwin $10. was secured by a dealer for stock and I am informed that he would have gone higher for it. It is just as rare as the 20 and should have brought $2000., for which same amount you had my estimate before the sale. I secured it and send it to you herewith for $850. which will include my profit. I have learned that one was sold some years ago for $2000. None of the great sales has ever contained it nor did Mr. Newcomer have it at the time his collection was stolen in 1913.

I am quite relieved that you did not apply the word fantastic to my estimates but was your opinion of the prices these great rarities are bringing. When we see the prices that objects of such rarity bring in line of other collections we think that ours are very low. Stamps that are only printed labels bring from $20,000. to $30,000. to-day. I gave my brother some years ago, a stamp I had collected, because I gave up collecting them and turned to Greek coins, that to-day brings $12,000. The present piece is certainly excessively rare, and was probably in Mr. Nigron's collection because he bought all coins he did not have, when he had the opportunity to buy. My Gregory sale did not have it nor did the Zabruskie, nor any other large collection that has been sold.

Yours very truly,

I have never had nor seen before another specimen of the Baldwin $10.

May 13, 1924.

Dear Mr. Chapman:

I think I shall keep the Baldwin $10 although I am disappointed that the price has gone up so quickly on it. I enclose you my check.

One of these pieces sold in the Ten Eyck sale for $525 and another in the Ulex sale for $300. Low sold one in 1902 for $300. These are the only records I know of except one of the Stickney sale where the same piece sold for $101.

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I am very glad to learn from your letter that you are improving and able to be about, as you stated you are "about to leave for Europe".

I acknowledge the receipt of your check for $850. in payment for the Baldwin Co. $10. Of course this piece I consider worth more than the price you quote, and really worth $1200. to $1500., on account of its great rarity even though it may have sold at the Nygren sale for $500. for I stated it was purchased by a dealer who said that he would have gone much higher had he been bid against. I did not look it up in the Teneyck sale and did not know the quotation of the piece there, but consider the price, as stated above, far below its true value.

I look up the Teneyck and find it had a very bad defect on the obverse. Mehl describes it as a "small die break on the obverse edge ^{from} of the fourth star from the left. It is a very bad one ~~starting~~ ^{extending} from about midway between the second and third stars, to midway between the fourth and fifth stars, in front of the nose and involving points of the star and apparently in high relief, disfiguring the piece very much. The reverse is worn flat with RWIA and TE of ten, not visible. You would be welcome to consider this a criterion of my price, for our piece is worth the difference.

A specimen was sold some years ago for $2000. at a private sale.

I find I should retain the Van Loon first series in

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

As I was putting away your letter of May 13, for the files, to which I replied in regard to the Baldwin $10. of the Ten Eyck sale, I note I did not reply to the last sentence, in which you say, "One in the Sticney sale piece sold for $10.!" You have an exclamation mark after it. This is entirely an error. The Baldwin Co. $10. in the Sticney sale was the one with the cowboy, and sold for $355. Sticney did not have our type. The sale by Low in 1902: it was again a specimen of the cowboy $10. Not only was it not in the Low sale, but up to the publication of Adams book in 1919, no specimen was known. The $5. was known and Adams quotes the $20. in two sales, 1904 - 1909. So at that time the $10. was the rarer. 1858 $10 Centry's Nygren sold for $410. and is far more common than a big advance therefore.

Yours sincerely,

S. H. Chapman

Dear Mr. Chapman:

I have your letter of May 23rd. I have all the small California pieces that I want. They do not, to tell the truth, interest me very much. I also have the Mormon piece of 1860 to which you referred. I shall note your son's address in Paris and see him if I find there is any order that he can possibly execute there for me.

Mr. John W. Barrett.

My dear Mr. Barrett:

The issuance of the catalog of the Simpson and Alford collections of perfect Half Cents has been delayed by the strike of the printers, unfavorable weather for photographs, and now the two binders are unable to take up the work until next week, and because of your previous subscription to the Beckwith Catalog, I have taken the liberty of sending you on approval, a copy of the present sale.

If you do not desire the catalog, kindly return. If you do, and desire the plates bound in, please return to me and I will have them bound.

This Alford catalog is really the completion of the copper series of the U.S. in connection to the Beckwith collection.

I should be glad to be favored with your order which will be faithfully executed.

Yours very truly,

S. H. Chapman.

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I offer you for purchase as a whole, my wonderful collection of Roman Portraits in the Denarii.

About thirty years ago I happened to acquire a large number of Roman work, which was so different to the usual poor wrinkled work of old coins, that it caused me to think that a great thing it would be to collect the series of Roman portraits, seeking the finest execution without regard to reverses or imperfections in inscriptions.

I have worked on it ever since, purchasing better portraits whenever I saw them, and discarding my specimens. With my numerous opportunities as a dealer to improve the specimens, I have brought together a truly splendid series of portraits of Roman emperors, from the earliest emperors of the Monarchy in the Republic down to Arcadius.

When there are portraits of emperors of different ages, I included them, for no reason is their dated, with a very few exceptions. There are exceptions, for instance, of Nero. A few of the finest specimens of which no specimen has been sold at any time within the last twenty years, than I know of.

There are twenty-two portraits in the Specimens, dated before the Triumvirate, in all about 100 specimens and 1000 (229) pieces, which add up at the value $1000. Mr. Garrett will see $2000.

which is practically worthless on the market for its individual value, especially in assembling such a collection. There are many pieces that would sell for far more than their tag prices.

I think that to you this would be a very important acquisition, as giving you an almost complete series of the Denarii that would connect with your collection of Medieval coins which are of the same denomination.

There are some extraordinary specimens. I mention one or two. Titus, unique, with very large head; of fine gold work; the reverse ^{JUVENVS} Princeps Inventus. It is not in Cohen. Also one or more unique reverses.

I would be willing to send the collection of coins on approval. I suppose ere this, you have returned from Europe.

Yours faithfully,

S. Hudson Chapman

To Mr. Garrett's Secretary: If Mr. Garrett has not yet returned from Europe, will you kindly inform me?

November 18, 1924.

Mr. S. H. Chapman,
1128 Spruce St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I have returned from abroad and have read your letters of September 19th and November 14th.

In regard to the first, I shall be glad to look over a list of Greek coins you might have. I should prefer doing this before asking you to send me such as I might possibly want. I have a list from you which I also found here, but I have not had time as yet to look it over.

In regard to the collection of Roman Denarii, my position in the first place is that I do not want to spend such a sum on coins which do not particularly interest me, and furthermore I lose the pleasure of collecting if I buy a large number of pieces at one time.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

JWG/S

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I have recently been cataloging my American Colonial coins and there are a number of questions I should like to ask you about certain pieces which you sold either to my brother or myself, or to Col. Ellsworth, but there is only one that I will ask you now.

The ownership of the Mark and Quint which you sold to Col. Ellsworth and which I bought from him, is traced by Crosby page 308 et seq to J.W. Hazeltine in 1872. To this you add on the card of Col. Ellsworth's collection that Henry S. Adams purchased them from Hazeltine. Could you give me the history of these two pieces from the time they left Adams's possession to the time they came into the hands of Col. Ellsworth?

Mr. John W. Garrett

Dear Sir,

I am very much obliged to you for your remittance of $100. and coins returned amounting to $600. balancing the invoice of Dec. 19th.

You probably think I am making a very large profit on the New Jersey cent at the cost to me, but I would have given the price I am asking for it at the sale had I been pushed to that extent. The coin is unique and has been so considered for years.

The date under the beam sold at one of my auction sales to Mr. Hillyer Ryder for $900. and if my recollection serves me right, there are several known like it, though it is the finest specimen known. This piece I am offering at $400. is unique. I cannot help but feel it is a pity you did not take it.

I have a collector who wants it knowing perfectly well where I got it and all about it. He offered to take it provided I would give him time to pay for it but as he owes me several thousand dollars already and is very slow in paying, it would probably be a couple of years before he settled for it.

I just sold the Washington Confederate along with a number of other rarities I had. The same gentleman would probably take this New Jersey. However, I will hold it a few days before offering it in case you should change your mind in regard to it.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Mr. John W. Harrison.

My dear Mr. Harrison:

Your letter of February 11th. received. The history of the ownership of the United States Pattern of 1796 Marble and Quincey in silver is as follows:

These pieces were found in the estate of Thomas Thompson

Secretary of the Continental Congress, and were sold and by his nephew and friend John W. Harrison.

John W. Harrison sold to Mr. James H. Ford, then to Henry A. Adams of London, who sold to Loring A. Parnell. They were sold in New York at the auction in 1897 to

H. B. Smith, of New York, who sold them to the Penn. Museum, and were then sold to

S. H. & M. Chapman, and sold to me.

Thomas H. Adams, Jr. of Philadelphia, who sold them to and by Henry Chapman to James W. Thompson. They have since been sold to John W. Harrison.

Mr. S. H. Chapman,
1128 Spruce St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I have carefully gone over the list of Roman Republic coins mentioned in your letter of February 12th. A number of them would duplicate good pieces which I already have in my collection; it is a series that does not particularly interest me, and I have, therefore, decided not to buy this little collection. Thank you very much, however, for calling it to my attention.

Very truly yours,

Mr. John T. Garret,
Garret Building, South Street,

March 19, 1935.

My dear Mr. Garret;

I sent you by express a package containing some fine coins, also the next day a few coins by registered letter. Would you kindly let me know whether they have been received as I am anxious. Do not allow this to hurry your decision since it is simply a desire on my part to know if you received the coins.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I received the two packages of coins you sent me and am trying to get time to look them over. I am very busy at present and it is difficult for me to go over them as thoroughly as I should like to. I shall let you know if I want to keep any of them as soon as possible.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Henry Chapman,
333 S. 16th St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I am returning to you under separate registered package most of the coins sent in your two invoices and my check for the six pieces that I have kept.

I am collecting Greek coins on rather restricted lines, that is to say attempting, as the opportunity offers, to get pieces in very fine condition showing the principle types, but I am not trying to get particularly rare pieces or varieties of types to any great extent. The same thing applies to my collection of Roman coins. The types of practically all of the coins you sent me were already in my collection, or else the specimens were not quite good enough to induce me to purchase them. I think, instead of sending a great lot of coins like this, it would be better to let me have a list of those you have to sell from time to time and I will check off those that I might want to see on approval, which you could then send me. I shall be away until some time in May, so do not send me anything at least until the second or third week of that month.

I am also very anxious to know from what collection the pieces I buy come, and I should be very much obliged if you would give me any information in this regard. His number 34, Byzantium from the Bement collection.

Yours very truly,

Mr. John W. Garrett,
Redwood Street, Corner South,
Baltimore, Md.

March 26, 1925.

My dear Mr. Garrett;

I am just in receipt of six superb Italian gold coins of the early period from 1250 and will you kindly permit me to send them on approval to you. The description of them would not picture to you the beauty of the coins.

As you spoke of the lack of interest in American coins, would you sell your collection of American and Colonial coins or even the entire collection with the exception of those you would desire to retain? If so, I will be very glad to endeavor to purchase them.

You spoke of going to take a trip. Are you going to Europe, or ~~are~~ would a letter addressed to you be forwarded?

P. S. If you wish to telegraph me,
I could send the coins tomorrow.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Dear Sir:-

Mr. Garrett telephoned me from New York asking me to tell you he had received your letter of March 26th. He is away from his collection and cannot go over any coins until he returns to Baltimore early in May, and he would be glad to have you write him at that time.

Mr. John W. Garrett.

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I take the liberty of sending you on approval, the complete set, or nearly complete set, of the Earliest Roman Silver coins, executed probably at Capua, in the south of Italy, by Greek artists, from which you may select separate pieces. This is my little collection, and I have decided to sell it separately. Several of the specimens are very rare and they are extraordinary for the perfection of the impression.

No. 1. head of Mars I found a most difficult coin to obtain complete like the present specimen; specially on the obverse, that the head should be all on and all the oak spray behind the head; and on the reverse that the Horse's head, especially the nose and ear, and the wheat ear behind the head and the tablet ROMANO, should be complete and perfectly struck. I think it is the best specimen I have ever seen or have ever seen illustrated.

The didrachm of the Head of Hercules, reverse, wolf and twins, is also a selected specimen. Note the perfection of the head of the wolf, it is often miserably executed.

The head of Apollo, No. 7, uncirculated, is a beautiful specimen and just as it left the dies. In fact it is this piece that started me collecting the whole series.

The drachm, No. 11, is very rare, and is also the drachm of the second period, head of Janus, though the didrachm is very common.

As a criterion; a few years ago, for a special study at the Numismatic Club, I exhibited my collection. Mr. Newell had his coins there and he lacked both these latter pieces. None of the great sales in the last few years have had as complete a series, and they surpass also those in the ~~last~~ ^{present} sales. I might also remark, in looking over these two present catalogs, that in every instance the portrait specimens in my series of Roman Portraits on the denarii, surpass those of this series for execution and impression, - especially impression.

In the Republican Series, take for instance the commonest coin of all - the denarius of Tiberius. My oldest head is a gem-like work, twice the usual size and the highest relief and looks like an impression from the finest ancient gems of the period. It is the work of a real artist, just as others in my collection; like the Nerva with which I started.

Yours sincerely,

L. H. Chapman

My dear Mr. Garrett:

I duly received your letter of the fifth enclosing a check for $125. for Nos. 6-7-15 from my invoice of May 22nd. and I also acknowledge the return of the balance of the invoice.

I return the invoice in case you might wish to keep it for reference.

Do you have all the other pieces? I ask this merely to know whether there is another nearly complete set in the United States. As I remarked in the last letter, the two small drachms are very rare. I thank you for attention and consideration

Mr. John W. Garrett,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir,

I have and can send you on approval if you wish the $5. 1849 of the Mass. & California Co. of which I enclose a rubbing. It is in extremely fine condition, price $6000. I believe but three are known and this is the only one that money will buy. May I come to Baltimore and show it to you? I also have a few beautiful Greek gold and silver coins. I will appreciate it if you will let me hear from you promptly as I am preparing to take a trip west next week to the A. N. A. Convention.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Your letter of Aug 11 has been received.

I shall not be back in Wash. until towards the end of next month. ~~Although~~ I do not feel much inclined to purchase the Ward & Co's piece, certainly not at anything like the price mentioned. I am rather chary of adding these very rare pieces to my collection at the high prices prevailing at present. Even the recent ones seen to turn up from time to time for sale unknown sources and there is no certainty that others will not appear on the market.

Yours within a year have offered a variety

$5, at $1250 & a Duboog $10 at $2500

although I neither one of them from the ~~own~~

~~own collection~~ ^{collection} and have supposed to have the real, ~~former~~ ^{former} examples examples. The Duboog is, I believe, a rare in the Ward & Co's of the ~~collected~~ ^{collected} ~~of~~ ^{of} so far as I know of 4 examples are known.

~~Even if the~~ I have 6 of the pieces in the in the Mint & Treasurers collection & had supposed them to be as did also Mr. New. The ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{of} existence. It would ~~interest~~ ^{interest} to interest by to know the list of the ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{of}

Belongs with 12 / 1925 11 1881

I wrote a few ~~for~~ letters in your name of Aug 26 that I don't know if you would purchase of me -
-16, may be had a quite remarkable figure. I would be a means of showing

My Dear Mr. Garrett

I am in receipt of your letter and have taken the Liberty of sending you coins as per enclosed invoice on approval. Take your own time to examine them as there are very important pieces in the lot and I trust there will prove to be many you desire.

The extremely rare Colonial coins are well worthy of your consideration as they are rarely obtainable at any price. I think you will find some of these to be absent from your collection, though not having a list I am unable to tell.

If you would like to see me in regard to them I shall be glad to go to Baltimore when you are ready.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

You own the Great Maris Coll of N. J. Cents & the only one that he never heard of turned up a few years ago & it is unique I believe - this I have sent - The 1786 N. J. date was the one sold at auction for $900. - not as rare as the one I send No 70.

Mr. John W. Garrett,

Dear Mr. Garrett,

Your note received. I have been waiting for a time to come when I could treat your $10. Of 1901 without interruption and three days ago I had it my hand and had to lay it down. This afternoon the way is clear and to act at once on your reminder.

I treated it with the utmost care not to mar it. As usual I washed my hands as a surgeon does for an operation- in our case ^{be} certain no dust was on my skin to scratch it in any passing of my fingers. And I am glad I was so careful because I know that no touch of mine caused faint hair-marks on obverse that showed after it was cleaned. I began with the process, (never used for gold) that I thought of when I undertook it, and it started ^{the} ~~that~~ very hard, dense tarnish spots on edge and in field of reverse, and I used three ~~other~~ baths before I was satisfied.

There is now no trace of the black patch between wing and mottoe.

The small, black specs in rim r. are minute holes in metal.

I am pleased to be able to do the little job for you. Eagle enclosed.

Thanking you for your kind wishes for the season and sincerely reciprocating, I am,

Very truly yours,

S. H. Chapman
